- 5.3.3 Employees availing of these benefits will not be eligible to claim any local travel expenses.

5.4 Professional development Allowance (PDA)

- 5.4.1 The purpose is to provide employees with an opportunity to improve their skills, research participation (published) or academic growth through certifications or courses. Any amount spent & claimed under PDA by the employee for said purpose is fully exempted from income tax on the production of actual bills and as per guidelines below:
 - a) The course or training pursued should directly contribute to academic or work skill enhancement of employees (self only) and should get awarded with certification / degree on successful completion. Courses not related to work area or academic enhancement such as courses in lifestyle, physical/ psychological fitness, music, sports, yoga etc. shall not be eligible for this benefit
 - b) The course must be recognized and delivered by qualified institutions approved by UGC, AICTE, NCVT or Sector skills council or companies of repute or recognized research establishments. This will not include courses delivered by individual trainers.
 - c) The Professional Development Course should have a sign-off approval by the hierarchy Manager (at band 5 or above) before pursuing the course (Voucher process), this is to certify that the course would be an improvement of employee's knowledge in the work area or improvement in employee's academic qualification
 - d) Company-sponsored or reimbursed training programs are not part of PDA, therefore exemption is not allowed
 - e) This policy is applicable to all full-time employees who opt for Professional Development Allowance (PDA) as part of their FBP components.
 - f) The courses registered for should provide an GST invoice in INR towards of Indian registered entity only
 - g) The maximum limit is up to INR 100,000 for a Financial Year, employees may choose any amount in multiples of INR 10,000 up to said limit under PDA
 - h) This benefit selection shall only be available for employees who have chosen "Old Tax" regime for tax treatment

- i) Once opted for PDA, employee will have one option to "Opt out" of the benefit in the FY (only if no claim has been made). Once opted out, the re-selection of PDA benefit shall not be allowed for the FY.

5.4.2 Claim Process (PDA)

- a) Employees having available balance in "Flexi" component would be eligible to choose this benefit up to available amount OR the benefit limit, whichever is lower.
- b) The amount chosen shall be held back from fixed pay under this benefit till the claim is made through submission of invoice, any unclaimed amount shall be paid as taxable payment in March payroll (FY end).
- c) Employees will be able to claim the amount at one go or quarterly based on the fee payment schedule.
- d) Cost against tuition fee or course fee only shall be eligible for payout under this scheme. No tax benefit shall be applicable on allied expenses such as books, instruments etc. The fee thus claimed should be inclusive of applicable taxes i.e. GST etc.
- e) The claim amount would be limited to the tenure served with company during the fiscal year i.e. in case of exit of employee/ international transfer/ joining during fiscal, the eligible claim amount shall be prorated for tax applicability.
- f) Claims should be filled within the financial year through the voucher process attaching the due approval taken from Manager (voucher process) and completion certificate / degree / Marksheet.
- g) The year in which certificate of completion, semester marksheet is issued, the claim shall be paid from PDA allocation of the same fiscal i.e. if employee gives exam in March 2026 but marksheet or completion certificate is issued in June 2026, the tax benefit on such claim shall be available only if employee has selected PDA in 2026-27 FY and not from FY 2025-26.
- h) Any claim for unsuccessful attempt of the course shall not be eligible for tax benefit under this program.

5.5 The amount of claim for the above components is exempt from tax as per current income tax rules under old tax regime.

5.6 The amount remaining in the flexi basket, after blocking PCS and other deductions, will be credited in the monthly salary as taxable allowance.

5.7 The unclaimed amount of every month will be carried forward to the next month and will be paid as a taxable allowance in the month of March every year, if it remains unclaimed.

5.8 National Pension Scheme

The National Pension System (NPS) is a voluntary defined contribution pension system in India. It is an EEE (Exempt-Exempt-Exempt) instrument in India where the entire corpus escapes tax at contribution (subject to limits defined), maturity and entire pension withdrawal amount is tax-free. The employees may contribute to this scheme through making contributions from their monthly payroll.

- 5.8.1 The employees can choose to contribute a defined percentage of their basic pay component on monthly basis
- 5.8.2 There is no option to exit mid-year after successful enrollment
- 5.8.3 The contribution rates can be 5%, 10% or 14% of their base pay

- 5.8.4 Employees in "Old tax regime" who opt for 14% contribution rate, will be eligible for tax rebate on only 10% of contributions as per applicable tax laws
- 5.8.5 The choice of contribution needs to provision and selected in the Flexi basket and funds allocated from balance available
- 5.8.6 The amount thus selected as contribution rate is reduced from the flexi basket and added to the compensation structure under head of "NPS" (selected option amount for the fiscal)
- 5.8.7 If any employee contribution is paid in excess due to late Updation of LWD/LWP then the same is recovered separately from the employee in the following month
- 5.8.8 Coforge has partnered with ICICI to make contribution under this scheme to NSDL
- 5.8.9 The contributions as deducted from monthly payroll is submitted to NSDL before 15th day of subsequent month.

Process:

- 5.8.10 Employees would need to first update their PRAN at iEngage (iEngage->My Data->Personalized Compensation Structure), with the selection of contribution rate
- 5.8.11 Employee 's PRAN is mapped under Our Corporate id , if it is successful then the option details are updated in employee's payroll records
- 5.8.12 If PRAN mapping is not successful then employee is informed of the same along with note for the corrective action to be done
- 5.8.13 For March, the NPS contribution is paid in advance along with February contribution as the NPS acceptance gets closed after 25th of March from corporate
- 5.8.14 In case you may want to "Opt out" of the NPS plan i.e. withdraw from the plan, kindly opt for the same in the PCS window. In case you may face any issue in online Updation, kindly drop a note at Payroll_hr@coforge.com , within the PCS window timelines. Kindly note that the "Opt Out" option is only available at start of the Fiscal year
